For the amateur golfer seeking to explore the Emerald Isle's golfing treasures, 'An Amateur Guide to the Golf Courses of Ireland' is an indispensable companion. This comprehensive guidebook provides a detailed overview of Ireland's most renowned courses, offering insider tips and breathtaking imagery to enhance your golfing journey.

Chapter 1: The Royal County Down Golf Club

Nestled along the breathtaking coastline of County Down, the Royal County Down Golf Club is consistently ranked among the world's top golf courses.

With two championship links courses, the Championship Course and the Annesley Course, Royal County Down offers a challenging yet rewarding experience for golfers of all abilities.

Chapter 2: The Old Head of Kinsale

Perched on a dramatic headland overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, the Old Head of Kinsale is a must-play for any golfer visiting Ireland. This spectacular links course offers breathtaking views and a challenging layout that will test even the most experienced players.
