

Life Between East and West: Footprints of McGill and Queen's, 14

By John Zucchi

Life Between East and West: Footprints of McGill and Queen's, 14 is a fascinating account of the intertwined histories of two of Canada's most prestigious universities. Drawing on extensive archival research and interviews, John Zucchi tells the story of how McGill University in Montreal and Queen's University in Kingston came to be founded, how they developed over the centuries, and how they have shaped Canadian society.

In the Eye of the China Storm: A Life Between East and West (Footprints (McGill-Queen's) Book 14) by Paul T.K. Lin

★★★★☆ 4.8 out of 5

Language	: English
File size	: 3843 KB
Text-to-Speech	: Enabled
Enhanced typesetting	: Enabled
Word Wise	: Enabled
Print length	: 329 pages
Screen Reader	: Supported

Zucchi begins by exploring the early history of McGill and Queen's. McGill was founded in 1821 by James McGill, a wealthy Scottish merchant, while Queen's was founded in 1841 by a group of Presbyterian ministers. Both universities were founded with a strong commitment to academic excellence and public service.

Over the years, McGill and Queen's have played a major role in Canadian history. They have been home to some of the country's most distinguished scholars and researchers, and their graduates have gone on to become leaders in all walks of life. McGill and Queen's have also been at the forefront of social and political change in Canada.

In Life Between East and West, Zucchi provides a rich and detailed account of the many ways in which McGill and Queen's have shaped Canadian society. He explores the universities' role in the development of Canadian science, medicine, law, and business. He also examines the universities' involvement in social and political movements, such as the fight for women's rights and the struggle for civil rights.

Life Between East and West is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of Canadian higher education or the history of Canada itself. Zucchi's engaging writing style and his deep knowledge of the subject matter make this book a pleasure to read from cover to cover.

Reviews

"Life Between East and West is a major contribution to the history of Canadian higher education. Zucchi's research is impeccable, his writing is clear and engaging, and his insights are original and provocative. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the history of McGill and Queen's, or in the history of Canadian society more generally."

- Margaret MacMillan, author of *Paris 1919: Six Months That Changed the World

"Life Between East and West is a fascinating and informative account of the intertwined histories of McGill and Queen's, two of Canada's most prestigious universities. Zucchi's book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of Canadian higher education or the history of Canada itself."

- Michael Bliss, author of *The Discovery of Insulin

About the Author

John Zucchi is a professor of history at McGill University. He is the author of several books, including The University of Toronto: A History and The Canadian University: A History.

Free Download Your Copy Today!

Life Between East and West: Footprints of McGill and Queen's, 14 is available now from all major booksellers.

In the Eye of the China Storm: A Life Between East and West (Footprints (McGill-Queen's) Book 14) by Paul T.K. Lin

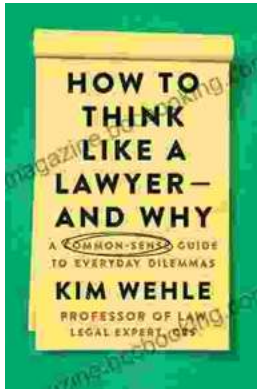

★★★★☆ 4.8 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 3843 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 329 pages
Screen Reader : Supported

Unveiling the Profound Essence of Taekwondo: Spirit and Practice Beyond Self-Defense

Taekwondo, an ancient Korean martial art, is often perceived solely as a means of self-defense. However, it encompasses a far more profound and...

Unveiling Clarity: The Common Sense Guide to Everyday Dilemmas Legal Expert Series

In the labyrinthine world of legal complexities, navigating everyday dilemmas can be a daunting task. But fear not, for the Common Sense Guide to Everyday Dilemmas Legal...