About the Book

Mikey is a heartwarming story about a special needs child who teaches his family and community about acceptance, compassion, and the importance of embracing diversity. Mikey is a young boy with Down syndrome who loves to play, learn, and make friends. Despite his challenges, Mikey is full of joy and has a contagious spirit that inspires everyone around him.

Mikey's story is told through the eyes of his mother, Kathy Hearn. Kathy shares her personal experiences raising Mikey and the lessons she has learned about parenting a child with special needs. She also discusses the challenges and triumphs that Mikey has faced, as well as the impact he has had on her family and community.

Mikey is a must-read for anyone who interacts with children with special needs or anyone looking for an inspiring story about the power of love and acceptance. Kathy Hearn's writing is honest, heartwarming, and full of hope. Mikey's story will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
