The Basics of Pickleball

The object of pickleball is to hit the ball over the net and into your opponent's court. The game is played with two or four players. The server hits the ball diagonally across the net to the receiver. The receiver then hits the ball back over the net. The ball can be hit in the air or after it has bounced once.

The game is played to 11 points, and the first team to reach 11 points wins the game. If the score is tied at 10-10, the game is played to 15 points.
