

Resurrecting Osiris: The Path of Mystical Awakening and the Keys to Immortality

Are You A Wanderer?

Wanderers, also known as starseeds, are highly spiritually evolved entities whom have traversed and twisted the timelines of the future to be here now to assist in the new earth transitioning. These beings are typically 6th Density Light Bodies, also known as the Higher Self Incarnation, whose purpose is to serve as a guide for all previous incarnations and lifetimes. The Wanderer is the Higher Self whom has descended into chemical matter to go through the process of transmuting their chosen mind-body avatar into pure love/light, as of means to anchor that energy into the collective human experience. Everyone has this experience at some point in their spiritual evolution, whether in this lifetime or another, though the earth has never seen an amount of starseeds and lightworkers like the amount of wanderers here right now, and if you're reading this, you are one of these beings who has answered Gaia's call.
