- Increased reading fluency: Sight words allow preschoolers to read more quickly and smoothly, without having to decode every word.
- Improved reading comprehension: When preschoolers don't have to focus on decoding words, they can better understand what they are reading.

- Expanded vocabulary: Learning sight words exposes preschoolers to new words and helps them build their vocabulary.
- Increased confidence: Learning sight words gives preschoolers a sense of accomplishment and helps them build confidence in their reading abilities.

How to Teach Sight Words to Preschoolers

There are many fun and effective ways to teach sight words to preschoolers, including:

- Flashcards: Flashcards are a classic way to teach sight words. Show your preschooler a flashcard with a sight word on it, and have them say the word aloud. You can also have them write the word on a piece of paper.
- Games: There are many fun games that can help preschoolers learn sight words, such as Bingo, Memory, and Go Fish.
- Songs and rhymes: Songs and rhymes are a great way to introduce sight words to preschoolers and help them remember them.
- Books: Reading books to your preschooler is a great way to expose them to sight words and help them learn to read.
