Amidst the ivy-clad walls and impeccable lawns, a sinister shadow emerges. The discovery of a young girl's body shattered the tranquility of the school, sending shockwaves through the community. As the body count rises, fear and paranoia grip St. Agatha's, threatening to unravel the very fabric of its existence.

Enter the Agathas, a secret society of brilliant young women who have always operated in the shadows, their identities known only to a select few. When the murders strike at the heart of their group, they are forced to confront their own vulnerabilities and embark on a perilous mission to uncover the truth.

Meet the Agathas:

- Nancy Drew: The resourceful and determined leader, always ready to face any challenge head-on.
- Hercule Poirot: The eccentric yet brilliant detective, renowned for his meticulous observations and sharp deductions.
- Miss Marple: The wise and intuitive village spinster, whose keen eye for detail uncovers hidden truths.
- Jessica Fletcher: The amateur sleuth with an uncanny ability to stumble upon mysteries and solve them with wit and charm.
- Agatha Christie: The enigmatic author herself, whose legendary mysteries have inspired generations.

As the Agathas delve deeper into their investigation, they uncover a web of secrets, rivalries, and long-buried grudges lurking beneath the polished facade of St. Agatha's. Suspicion falls on everyone, from the enigmatic staff to the secretive students, and even the Agathas themselves.

With each new clue, the Agathas inch closer to the truth, but danger lurks at every corner. They must race against time to unravel the sinister plot and expose the killer before they strike again. Along the way, they will forge unbreakable bonds, confront their own fears, and discover a strength they never knew they possessed.
